

I CAN DO IT!

SVVEA is pleased to present to our members a program of classroom management that comes from the very classrooms it is designed to serve.

I CAN DO IT! is designed for K-12 teachers within their first five years of teaching. SVVEA is offering this course October 11, 2008. It is worth 1 Semester Credit from Adams State College.

Included in the interactive curriculum is information about:

-  Elements necessary for successful classroom management
-  Communication or learning styles
-  Interventions for difficult behaviors
-  Hints to create the smoothly flowing classroom
-  Tools to begin building positive parent/teacher relationships
-  Opportunities to link with a partner for future support

The cost for Adams State Credit is $45 for SVVEA members and SVVEA will cover the cost of materials. For potential members, the cost of the credit is $45 and $25 to cover materials.

Trainers for this class are Renee Collier (teacher at Longs Peak Middle School) and Cyrus Collier (special education teacher at Longmont High).

Sign up today for the October 11 class. Just fill out the bottom of the page and give to one of our SVVEA representatives or place in district mail to SVVEA. Details will follow at a later date regarding place and time.
